

One Survivor Remembers: Video Questions

Write your answers on your own sheet of paper.

1. When Germany invaded Poland, how did many Germans living there react?
2. What were they given?
3. Where did Gerda's family hide and what were the conditions of the place?
4. What happened to Gerda and her family?
5. How many years did Gerda spend in concentration camps?
6. Gerda thought about committing suicide. How was she going to accomplish it?
7. When prisoners were evacuated from the camps, these evacuations became known as what?
8. Describe Gerda's physical appearance when she was liberated.

Think Critically...

9. What scenes or images were most powerful for you, and why? What lessons or messages did these scenes offer?
10. This film focuses on the persecution of Jews in the Holocaust, but others also were murdered, including Soviet prisoners of war, Roma (Gypsies), gays and lesbians, and Communists. In what ways do you see persecution happening in today's world? What groups do you see being targeted? What can be done to work against such prejudice and intolerance?

One Survivor Remembers: Video Questions

Write your answers on your own sheet of paper.

1. When Germany invaded Poland, how did many Germans living there react?
2. What were they given?
3. Where did Gerda's family hide and what were the conditions of the place?
4. What happened to Gerda and her family?
5. How many years did Gerda spend in concentration camps?
6. Gerda thought about committing suicide. How was she going to accomplish it?
7. When prisoners were evacuated from the camps, these evacuations became known as what?
8. Describe Gerda's physical appearance when she was liberated.

Think Critically...

9. What scenes or images were most powerful for you, and why? What lessons or messages did these scenes offer?
10. This film focuses on the persecution of Jews in the Holocaust, but others also were murdered, including Soviet prisoners of war, Roma (Gypsies), gays and lesbians, and Communists. In what ways do you see persecution happening in today's world? What groups do you see being targeted? What can be done to work against such prejudice and intolerance?

One Survivor Remembers: Video Questions

Write your answers on your own sheet of paper.

1. When Germany invaded Poland, how did many Germans living there react?
2. What were they given?
3. Where did Gerda's family hide and what were the conditions of the place?
4. What happened to Gerda and her family?
5. How many years did Gerda spend in concentration camps?
6. Gerda thought about committing suicide. How was she going to accomplish it?
7. When prisoners were evacuated from the camps, these evacuations became known as what?
8. Describe Gerda's physical appearance when she was liberated.

Think Critically...

9. What scenes or images were most powerful for you, and why? What lessons or messages did these scenes offer?
10. This film focuses on the persecution of Jews in the Holocaust, but others also were murdered, including Soviet prisoners of war, Roma (Gypsies), gays and lesbians, and Communists. In what ways do you see persecution happening in today's world? What groups do you see being targeted? What can be done to work against such prejudice and intolerance?

Class Set

Class Set

Class Set